

<< Whereas one of the most effective means of ensuring the Protection of Nature is to make the world aware of the extreme seriousness of this question;

» Whereas an essential condition for success to this end is the education not only of children and their teachers, but of the public in general,

» The Conference :

» Request Unesco to entrust the study of this problem, as soon as possible, to its specialized services with a view to preparing, in collaboration with the Bureau of the Union, detailed recommendations for this purpose, such recommendations to be communicated to the members of Unesco and to those of the Union;

» Invites the latter members to urge these recommendations as strongly as possible upon the competent authorities (including Unesco National Commissions) and upon public opinion in their respective countries ».