

1. The Seventh General Assembly

- resolves that consultation should be held with other - international organizations concerned, in particular with F.A.O., UNESCO and C.C.T.A., in order to launch an African project in the early future. This project would be designed to inform and influence public opinion, through its leaders and responsible persons in the Governments, that the applications of conservation practices, based on ecological knowledge, is in the best interests of all African countries.

The programme of operation should include a) preparatory work including a field mission to be commenced as soon as possible; b) a conference in Africa during 1961; c) an organization for following up the decisions of that Conference.
