

12. The Seventh General Assembly,

considering that the Mountain Gorilla has been effectively protected for the past 31 years in the Albert National Park in the Eastern Congo, and that no similar provision has yet been made for the protection of the Lowland Gorilla;

- urges African governments whose territories include the range of the Lowland Gorilla to establish inviolable national parks or integral reserves without delay, to assure permanent protection of these gorillas.