

16. Statement

The Seventh General Assembly of the International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources would welcome the introduction in the United Nations General Assembly of a resolution supporting the principles of nature conservation and the practical application thereof in economic and social affairs.