

13. The Grand Canyon

In view of the outstanding importance of the National Parks of the U.S.A., and therefore of the necessity for maintaining their integrity

the 9th General Assembly of IUCN meeting in Lucerne in June 1966

urges that the National Park and National Monument of the Grand Canyon should be kept intact for the benefit of mankind, and protected against technical intrusions.