CONVINCED that humanity and all living beings have a right to the conservation, protection and restoration of the health and integrity of ecosystems;
6. ENTRUSTS the World Commission on Environmental Law in particular with monitoring and supporting of these initiatives.

State and agency Members of the United States voted against this motion.